

WORLD OF RADIO #1010, produced Nov. 2, 1999 by Glenn Hauser

- *Our new schedule via World Radio Network; Europe Sat 0430 and 0930 on WRN1 and WRN2; North America Sat 1700, Sun 0630; also to Asia, Pacific, Africa and view new AfriStar direct broadcast. Details at <http://www.wrn.org>
- *WWCR has additional time for us listed: Sat 2030 on 12160; new specialty program listing at <http://www.wwcr.com>
- *RFPI off both 21460-USB, and 6975 for weeks; still 24h on 15049
- *November Continent of Media soon on RFPI; already at <http://www.DXing.com>
- *KNLS, Alaska, English schedule for now and next spring
- *Allan Weiner of WBCQ married Elayne on Halloween, but he has been in hospital for Lyme disease; WBCQ-2 hopes to test before winter
- *Spectrum decides to continue show, back to basics, new time
- *WRMI shifts frequency to avoid Norway, also for Prague relay; Wavescan no-show
- *New frequencies for Radio Marti
- *Lost and Found Sound on All Things Considered about WHER, All-Girl Radio in Memphis; part two this Friday; numbers coming up
- *Fred Calland, NPR classical producer and host, and quiltmaker, died October 22
- *Radio Hall of Fame broadcast November 20; lobby stations to carry it
- *FCC establishes new Enforcement and Consumer Info Bureaus
- *NYC FM station with "compatible" digital, puts noise on sidebands
- *Home networking VDSL taking over HF bands, expected to wipe out SW reception. See <http://hamradio-online.com>
- *Monitoring Coast Guard after Egypt Air crash
- *Begging Radio Cairo to fix its modulation
- *CBC denied return to 940; CIQC to start all-news there November 24
- *XERTA, Mexico City, suspended SW; XEYU still on, barely modulated
- *AWR closes down TIAWR Costa Rica prior to sale; special final broadcast was November 2; promotes move to Guatemala but frequency faces Marti and Cuban jamming
- *Via satellite, SW, FM, AM, internet, cable, this is World of Radio 1010; wghauser@yahoo.com or P O Box 1684, Enid, OK 73702, USA; fax 1-580-233-2948 attn Hauser
- *Our website completely updated with our new schedules, and info on our publications: <https://www.angelfire.com/ok/worldofradio>
- *Thanks this week for financial support to James Strader
- *Colombian and Ecuadorian MW harmonics
- *New Peruvian, Radio San Antonio, Villa Atalaya, Ucayali
- *Identity of Peruvian intruding on 40m hamband: La Voz de Huarinjas
- *Radio Ghana's schedule, where SW remains supreme
- *Plans for a new radio station in Mauritius, we hope shortwave
- *Radio Portugal no longer 24 hours to Timor, and new frequency
- *Spain's new English schedule
- *BBC WS previews: Pushing Back the Curtain; International Question Time special from South Africa; Remembrance Day Service
- *Some BBC schedules show wrong frequency; clash with Japan

*R. Netherlands documentaries about Panama Canal Zone
*Deutsche Welle African broadcast also covers North America
*Croatian Radio plans to move into 40m hamband to North America
*R. Yugoslavia's new English schedule
*Romanian domestic service puts numerous spurs on 7 MHz band
*Voice of Greece's new English frequencies
*R. Belarus, Minsk, new English schedule
*R. Vilnius, Lithuania, back on lower winter frequency
*R. Finland not heard with English in our mornings, but evenings, including Latin news
*Masshad, Iran regional in Uzbek changes frequency
*R. Thailand's new English schedule
*Ujung Pandang, Indonesia, goes back to original name
*Australian Referendum on Republic Nov 6
*R. Australia makes changes Nov 8, including Timor service
*New Zealand tried 17 MHz overnight, booming in to Europe
*Check 35 MHz band for broadcast harmonics from SW, e.g. Antigua
*Propagation outlook from Boulder, Nov 2; flux peak 190
*Standard disclaimer
*That's WOR 1010; I'm Glenn Hauser

###